GLENDALE'S GAIN

INCREASE OF 8 PER CENT. IN POPULATION IN SPITE OF ADVERSE WAR CONDITIONS

The new official directory of Glendale, which is now on the press, and which will include the newly-annexed Grand View District, contains some interesting figures. It shows, for instance, that the population of our city exceeds 12,000. It also shows that females are largely in excess of the males.

The largest single family in the city is said to be that of Mrs. Rosa Acosta of 320 Oak street, who has nine children. There are, however, six families in which there are seven children and one family of six boys.

The bulwarks of the American population, the Jones, Johnson, Brown and Smith families are well represented here, the bearers of the Jones name numbering 64, Johnsons 64, Browns 74 and Smiths 98.

In spite of war conditions which brought about an almost complete cessation of building and a big migration of families to the shipyard cities, an increase in population since the last directory was issued of eight per cent. is shown.

The directory will be invaluable for many reasons including the new city map which it contains, the new names of streets and the new numbers which now radiate from the civic center at Broadway and Brand boulevard.

FORGERY IS ALLEGED

Charges of a serious nature are said to face a young man to be arraigned in the city recorder's court this afternoon. Although only 17 years of age, it is alleged he forged one or more checks, one of which is held by a local shoe market. If he is unable to straighten the matter in Judge Lowe's court today, the fellow will face the juvenile department of superior court, undoubtedly.

MOTION PICTURES MADE BY NIGHT

The Glendale National Bank, Cypress street and Brand boulevard, was the scene of night motion picture making last night and early today. A party of 40 Universal picture actors were at work about the bank as a location. At one o'clock this morning, the entire party dined at Yager's cafe.

RECEPTION TO WILLISFORDS

A reception will be given this evening at the First Congregational Church of Glendale to welcome formally the returned pastor, Rev. E. H. Willisford, and Mrs. Willisford. All friends of the church and of the Willisfords are cordially invited to this function, at which it is expected Mr. Willisford will tell something in an entirely informal way of what he has seen overseas.

DISABLED SOLDIERS

WILL BE EDUCATED FOR NEW OCCUPATIONS BY UNCLE SAM FREE OF ALL COST

The local Exemption Board is in receipt of a communication from the Federal Board of Vocational Education in Washington enclosing return postal cards to be filled out by members of the Board with the names of men who have been disabled in army or navy service who may wish to avail themselves of the opportunities the federal government is giving them for re-education in some line of employment fitted to his present condition.

The slip attached to the return card reads as follows:

In dealing with the disabled man whose address you will send on the attached card, the Federal Board expects to treat him throughout as a civilian needing advice and assistance; to approve his choice of occupation, unless, after careful investigation, sound opinion shows it to be inadvisable; to train him to meet the needs of the occupation he has elected; to urge him to make the most of his opportunity to overcome his handicap by taking thoroughgoing instructions; to help him to secure desirable employment; and to keep in close touch with him after he goes to work.

All expenses involved in the training, the support of the man while in training, and allowances for the support of his dependents will be paid by the Government.

A personal investigation will be made of each case referred to the Federal Board. Send the name and

BOOMS BUSINESS IN FACE OF ADVERSITY

W. W. Shaver, proprietor of the Broadway Garage, 721 East Broadway, is an optimist and he is starting a campaign to bring business to his place through the rear door, via Glendale avenue, while upper Broadway is being paved. The torn-up roadbed will close the two front entrances to his large garage establishment, but his cheery smile will greet all comers through the back door.

D. A. R. MEETING

PROFITABLE AND ENTERTAINING SESSION AT HOME OF REGENT, MRS. J. H. BRALY

About thirty out of the thirty-three members of the Richard Gridley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution gathered at the home of the regent, Mrs. John Hyde Braly, Thursday afternoon, for the second meeting of their chapter year, their sessions having been discontinued during the influenza epidemic. It was quite naturally an enthusiastic reunion.

Two speakers contributed to the interesting program which had been provided by the hostess. Rev. E. H. Willisford was present with a collection of war souvenirs and made a short talk on his experience at the front, afterwards answering questions with which the ladies bombarded him, such as: "What about the criticisms of the Y. M. C. A. work?" "What is the meaning of 'doughboy?'" "Were the rats and 'cooties' as bad as they have been represented?"

Mrs. Baurhyte, prominent Los Angeles club woman, gave a talk full of interesting details in regard to the Los Angeles Maternity Cottage which has always been an object of interest to the Chapter and one of its

LEADER ASTONISHED

COMMUNITY SING FURNISHES SOME SURPRISES FOR PROFESSOR KIRCHOFFER

The community sing Thursday evening got back to the attendance of about 90 per cent. and at the rate it is gaining it will probably crowd the High School auditorium at the next meeting. The song books used by the singers containing familiar ballads and hymns were on sale at 10c each and with this equipment for which the organization has been waiting for several weeks, a fresh start should be made.

Professor Kirchoffer was in his usual good form and chock-full of the enthusiasm with which he always succeeds in inspiring the chorus. There were some surprises for him and the audience in the program last night. Drill was taken on "The Last Rose of Summer," which Mr. Kirchoffer persuaded the chorus to sing as it is written and not according to the vagaries of soloists. He admitted that they did very well with this difficult composition, considering all the conditions, but their accomplishments left him a little dubious about testing them on "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," which he considers one of the most difficult songs for chorus singing. The audience had no anxieties, however, and proceeded to sing it in a manner which—he declared—left him gasping. He said he never had seen it done so well before without training, and hinted at his suspicions that the singers had been practicing in secret to confound him, all of which was very pleasant for the complacent vocalists to hear.

One of the early numbers on the repertoire was "Howdy Do," which was sung lustily and with great enjoyment. It also included several hymns, special drill being given on "How Firm a Foundation," the favorite of Theodore Roosevelt. "He Leadeth Me" and "I Need Thee Every Hour" were also sung. The program closed with "America" instead of "Star-Spangled Banner." Considerable valuable instruction was given in the use of the throat, placing of the voice, articulation, etc., and some fine drill in singing the "Marseilles."

At the next "Sing," a fifteen-minute talk will be given by Dr. E. H. Willisford concerning his work in France when it is expected the French National air will again be sung. Professor Kirchoffer hopes the chorus will become as familiar with it and sing it with as much enthusiasm as they put into their own National song. He is also hoping to be able to still further develop part singing and segregate the sopranos, altos, bass and tenors.

GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIES BOARD

CABINET OFFICIALS ASK PRESIDENT WILSON TO APPOINT ONE TO HELP REDUCE FOOD PRICES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 7.—Officials representing all government departments, headed by Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce, cabled President Wilson today, urging the appointment of a government industries board to help bring down food prices.

FEDERAL INTERVENTION PROBABLE

IF TROOPS ARE ORDERED TO SEATTLE THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE ACTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 7.—The expectation here today was that the ordering of troops to Seattle will be followed by government intervention in the strike.

SOLDIERS PATROL SPOKANE

TACOMA STREET CAR MEN REPUDIATE ACTION OF LEADERS IN CALLING STRIKE, AND RETURN TO WORK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—Armed soldiers today patrolled the streets of Spokane for the double purpose of forcing men in uniform to observe military rules and to preserve order.

Tacoma, Feb. 7.—Street railway employes are expected to return to work today following yesterday's walk-out. They voted last night to repudiate the action of their leaders in calling a strike. There have been no disorders.

SEATTLE STRIKE SITUATION GRAVE

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS WAITING WITH STACKED ARMS TO RESPOND TO ORDER TO ENTER CITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 7.—The strike situation today reached a high state of intensity. Outside of the ranks of the strikers there was an evident overwhelming desire for martial law. Soldiers had not appeared on the streets at noon, although they were waiting outside the city, ready to come.

At the Bremerton Navy Yard it was reported that sailors were standing under stacked arms awaiting a call to service, and that the issuance of all passes has been stopped.

At noon the city streets were practically deserted except for hungry people wandering about in search of something to eat.

Few shops attempted to open. Light, telephone, water and gas systems continued to operate today under protection of the police. In the hotels guests were camping out in their rooms, eating canned food.

The city got its first taste of hunger today when it was found practically impossible to buy anything to eat except at the temporary soup kitchens operated by the strikers. One hundred thousand persons were fed there. Milk for babies and invalids is being sold only on physicians' certificates. A plan is under consideration to reopen union restaurants under the supervision of the strikers.

The only newspaper publishing today is "The Star," and it is doubtful if it will publish its full quota of editions.

It is admitted everywhere that the situation holds the most grave possibilities.

GOVERNMENT EXPENSE EXCEEDS REVENUE

BOND ISSUES WILL BE NEEDED TO MAKE UP A DEFICIENCY OF ABOUT TWELVE BILLIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 7.—The treasury and appropriations committee report, made public today, shows that the cost of government during the past fiscal year will be eighteen billions of dollars and ten billions next year, indicating the necessity for heavy taxes as provided in the bill introduced yesterday.

The revenue bill covers one-third of the amount in taxes. Undoubtedly the remainder will be met with bond issues both this year and next. Although appropriations for the past year total thirty billions of dollars, cancellations following the end of the war will reduce this to eighteen billions. This means that approximately twelve billions must be raised from sources other than taxes this year.

SHIP WORKERS QUIT AT BRISTOL, PA.

STRIKE MAY BRING CESSATION OF ALL SHIP BUILDING ON THE DELAWARE RIVER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 7.—Eight thousand out of ten thousand employes of the Merchants' Ship Building Corporation near Bristol, Pa., struck at 8:00 o'clock this morning, only the wood workers and office force remaining at work.

The strike threatens to stop all ship building on the Delaware River.

KEEN SCHOOL RIVALRY IN FOOTBALL CONTEST

Evidencing the keen rivalry between South Pasadena and Glendale Union high schools, which met in a football duel on the local gridiron today, a score or more of rooters from the visiting team's town triumphantly toured the business streets here last night in a half dozen motor cars. The game is called for 4:00 p. m. at the high school athletic field.

A WOUNDED SOLDIER

PRIVATE JEAN W. BENNETT OF THIS CITY EN ROUTE FOR CAMP FREMONT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Bennett, wife of Private Jean W. Bennett, of 106 East Wilson Ave., this city, is rejoicing in the thought that her husband will soon be at Camp Fremont, California, if he is not already there, and that she will see him again after a year's separation. He was in the intelligence department of the 91st Division, which, when it comes to combat service is one of the highest ranked and most dangerous kinds of army work. He was wounded in the left shoulder and has never written his wife the particulars, but she knows he has been temporarily disabled though the surgeons have encouraged him to expect complete restoration. He arrived in January at Camp Stewart, Va., which was shortly after quarantined for diphtheria for ten days and when she last heard from him was en route for the base hospital at Camp Fremont, where he was to receive final treatment.

She hopes that he will be granted a furlough in which to visit her, but she does not expect he will receive his discharge until his disabilities are cured. He was an auto mechanic and driver before he entered the army.

G. U. H. S. SPORT NEWS

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP OF SUBURBAN LEAGUE FOUGHT OUT TODAY—NOTES

Glendale Union High School goes after the football championship of the Suburban League on the local gridiron this afternoon with hammer and tongs. It's a case of get South Pasadena or bust, according to one husky member of the home eleven, and from all predictive signs, Glendale will win.

South Pasadena has felt sure of the victory so long—having defeated Covina and Citrus Highs—that a raiding party of rooters visited this city last night in an effort to stir up a friendly skirmish with local fans. The visitors are positive they will win. But what of it, ask the Glendale huskies.

The eleven here is strong, although it has lost a couple of good players during the influenza epidemic. Monrovia went down to defeat before Glendale's team during the earlier season. Game is called at 4:15 p. m. on the high school lot. Following is the line-up of local lads:

Center	T. McIver
Right guard	Price
Right tackle	Moyse
Right end	McMillan
Quarterback	Tummell, captain
Right halfback	McCluskey
Fullback	Wieman

Smashing through to victory against the best team Occidental College basket-ballers could furnish, Glendale Union High School five won a 30 to 19 victory here Tuesday afternoon. Normal C. Hayhurst, Glendale coach, believes he has a championship squad this year. Tuesday night's line-up included Tummell and Fanset, forwards; Price, center; T. McIver and W. McIver, guards.

MARRIAGE OF EVELYN UTTER

Elder J. W. Utter, formerly pastor of the Glendale Christian Church, but now of Covina, recently received a cablegram from his daughter, Evelyn, stating that she had arrived safely at Bolengi, the main mission station of the Christian churches in South Africa, and had been wedded to Dr. Pearson. Miss Evelyn left Covina last October, going to France with a missionary party. They had to wait there three months for an African-bound ship. Dr. Pearson and Miss Utter attended the School of Missions in Indianapolis the past two years and the acquaintance there began ripened into love with the happy culmination noted above.

GLENDALE TRUSTEES

COUNTY FLOOD CONTROL COMMITTEE TO PROCEED WITH WORK IN VERDUGO CANYON

The Board assembled at 8:15 p. m. Thursday evening, February 6th. All members present except Trustee Jackson. The minutes of the last regular meeting, including the adjourned session, were read and approved.

Communications were read from F. M. Farrand and Mrs. Mary V. Turner, requesting that the City purchase their water stock in the Verdugo Canyon Water Co. The communications were ordered filed.

An application was received from the Santa Paula Rural Motor Express for permission to pass through the City in the operation of a line of motor express vehicles operating between Santa Paula and Los Angeles. Reference was made in the application to Chapter 213, Laws of 1917, and accompanying the same was a notice from the Railroad Commission for the State of California that the hearing was to be had in the matter on Thursday, Feb. 6, 1919. The application was referred to the City Attorney, who later reported in reference to the same that the law requires that the body to which application was made must fix a time for hearing of the same. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, it was ordered that a hearing in regard to the application for this permit be set for Feb. 20, 1919, at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

The City Engineer made a report upon the conditions on Acacia Ave. between Brand Blvd. and Central Ave. and submitted a plan for the construction of driveways connecting the street with private property. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, it was ordered that the City Engineer be requested to arrange with property owners to pay for the material required and the City to perform the labor of reconstructing the five driveways now connecting the street with private property on West Acacia Ave. between Brand Blvd. and Central Ave.

Reports were received from the following City Officials: City Recorder, City Health Officer, Tax Collector and Treasurer, and all were ordered to be filed, the report of the treasurer being first referred to the finance committee.

The City Manager submitted a report of the activities of the police department during the month of January, particularly in regard to the number of arrests made for violation of the Traffic Ordinance. The report set forth, among other details, that the arrests made in the twenty-mile zone were of persons driving at a rate of speed of from thirty-four miles to thirty-seven and one-half miles. In the thirty-mile zone, the number of miles per hour at which vehicles were being driven ranged from thirty-two miles to forty-seven miles.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that the position of police

CARL PATCH DEAD

GLENDALE FAMILY BEREAVED SECOND TIME WITHIN THREE MONTHS

A message came Thursday evening to Mrs. A. E. Patch of 125 Belmont Street, announcing the death of her son, Carl H. Patch, at his home in Chicago, after an illness of a week. The father of the deceased passed away November 8th and Mrs. Patch is prostrated by this second bereavement. Mr. Patch came west at the time of his father's death and in the absence of his brother, Leslie L. Patch, who was in the army at that time, all arrangements for bringing the remains from Arizona to Glendale and arranging for the funeral devolved upon him. He was not in a strong condition at that time and it is believed the worry at that time hastened the illness that resulted in his death.

Besides his mother, Mr. Patch is survived by a wife and two children, one brother, L. L. Patch of Glendale, recently discharged from the army, two sisters, Mrs. Cleo Hartley of Glendale and Mrs. G. W. Harrison of Cement, Cal.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rosenberger, of Detroit, Mich., who are spending the winter at 333 Vine street, Glendale, gave a dinner Wednesday night. Their table was beautifully decorated and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Cummings of Los Angeles, Mr. George Heminger of Grand Haven, Mich., and Mr. C. J. Klein of Los Angeles and Mrs. Mildred Flores and Miss Mary Chatman of this city.

PLEASING FIGURES FOR GLENDALE BOOSTERS

In another column of tonight's issue of The Evening News the new city directory is quoted as giving the population of this thriving city at 12,000 people. In fact, the exact figures of the directory will be more than 12,000.

Add to this the several hundred of Casa Verdugo residents and the community's population can be quoted at 13,000. Think of it. Some city, isn't it?

Ten years ago, the population hovered between two and three thousand souls. Five years ago the 5,000 mark had been passed. And during the past two years of war conditions the community has increased 8 per cent in number of residents.

With the prospects of an unprecedented year's business and newcomers arriving here every day, Glendale is on the fair way to growth into a city of more than 15,000 souls.

WE SHOULD SAY, "SOME REGIMENT"

The Glendale Union High School cadets marched through the business section of the city today under the leadership of their major, Prof. Normal C. Haymurst, who has charge of the military and physical instruction of the school.

And a mighty showing the boys made, too. Although some were dressed in civilian clothes, all were in line, keeping in step, and as the column progressed down the street toward the school grounds, every command of its officers was carried out with a precision most pleasing.

The cadets number strong enough to furnish the nucleus for one infantry company in the regular army, but as they are divided into battalions of lesser strength, they form a regiment that would be quite formidable in case of local disturbances.

The physique and morale of the cadets in marching order is good, and altogether, a commentator would say, 'Some Regiment."

COMMENT OF THE COUNTRYSIDE

Today Glendale is entertaining sixty visiting teachers from roundabout communities who are here at demonstrations of physical culture education. The well-being of the child takes precedence over the education of the mind, for a sick body leaves one ill fitted for life's work.

Influenza has veritably disappeared in Glendale. Only an occasional case is reported now, and the health of the city seemingly is better than ever before. It is nice to think, too, that Glendale passed through the epidemic with comparatively few deaths and did not adopt the objectionable "flu" mask.

There are ninety-eight families named Smith in Glendale. Yes, indeed, and if any friends of yours says, "Where does Smith live?" you will have to reply in the same mood that the sailor did when a kind lady inquired of the "Gob" if he knew her son, who was also in the navy. "No, ma'am," he replied, "I don't know your son, but I do know 200,000 others who are in the service."

The editor of The Glendale Evening News, Mr. A. T. Cowan, was a visitor at this office yesterday afternoon and this morning, having been away from the editorial sanctum for ten days with an acute case of Spanish influenza to keep his mind worried. He expressed a desire to have his name in the paper when sick, going so far as to forward a communication calling attention to the willful omission. It is now expected he will take exception to this announcement of his recuperation.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

officer held by George H. Herald, be declared vacant, that officer having resigned, effective February 1st.

Trustee Henry offered a resolution appointing Thomas McGuire police officer which was adopted as Resilution No. 1064.

The City Manager reported that the City needs two lots belonging to L. H. Hurtt upon which to deposit dirt hauled from Broadway during the course of the improvement of that street, and, on motion of Trustee Shaw, the motion was adopted, authorizing the Street Superintendent to lease lots numbers 2 and 4 of the Kate C. Palmer tract for the sum of ten ($10.00) dollars a year.

The City Manager reported that the Flood Control committee of the county announces that it is ready to go ahead with the protection work in Verdugo Wash and it is the desire of Engineer Reagan in charge of the work to co-operate with the City of Glendale in every way possible.

The Manager of the Public Service Department made a report in regard to the proposed contract for lamps and, on motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that a contract be entered into by the Public Service Department with the General Electric Co. in regard to lamps, the Manager of that department being authorized to sign same.

The City Clerk brought to the attention of the Board, the fact that certain water owners formerly under the Verdugo Pipe and Reservoir Distributing System are being charged an increased rate for water, contrary to the agreement between such water owners and the City of Glendale at the time the property of the above company was taken over by the City. Action on the matter was deferred awaiting further report from the Manager of the Public Service Department in regard to the subject.

The Chairman called the attention of the Trustees to the desirability of some action being taken by the City in recognition of the services to the country performed by returning soldiers. The matter was discussed at some length without action.

The Ordinance approving the annexation of certain territory known as Grand Avenue District was taken up at this time for the third and final reading and, upon motion, was adopted as Ordinance No. 344.

The Ordinance amending Ordinance No. 301 (hospitals and sanitariums) was taken up for the third and final reading and, upon motion, adopted as Ordinance No. 345.

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—Dr. A. W. Hoishold, medical superintendent of the Napa State Hospital, is in receipt of a letter from Secretary of Treasury Carter Glass, thanking him for experimental research done in connection with influenza vaccines and serums. Dr. Hoishold co-operated in this work with Dr. W. G. McCoy, a government surgeon. Although 102 of the 188 hospital employes have had the "flu," there was but one patient at the hospital who suffered an attack during the flare-up of the latter part of January.

THE CENTENARY MOVEMENT

A highly satisfactory meeting to place before members of the First Methodist Church of this city plans which are being made for the Centenary Movement, now on, which calls for a fund of eighty millions, was held in the lecture room of the church Wednesday evening. Rev. Stephens, the leading speaker, with the aid of stereopticon illustrations, made an outline of some of the conplated work, including the Spanish mission in Los Angeles, for which a plan has been made to spend $150,000 in buildings and equipment.

Mr. McClellan, who is at the head of the Sunday school work of the movement, also made an excellent talk, as did the pastor of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach, who was present.

LA CANADA

Friday, Feb. 14th, at 2:30 o'clock, a get-together meeting will mark the reopening of the Parent-Teachers' Association at the schoolhouse.

The officers have many new and novel plans to present and it is hoped all will attend.

Mothers with small children or babies are particularly urged to come as one of the new features to be discussed is the arrangement of the program so that children will be welcome at all meetings.

Light refreshments and a social hour will close the afternoon.

Lloyd Peet, son of Mrs. Callie Peet, has secured his discharge from the army and has just returned to his home in La Canada. He was with the heavy artillery overseas. Although he did his bit at the front, he came through without injury. He has interesting tales to tell of his experiences up against the Hun.

Dr. E. H. Willisford will be the speaker at the Pacinc Avenue P.-T. A. meeting Thursday, Feb. 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lawson moved last Tuesday from 546 North Kenwood street to 1001 Melrose, at the corner of Doran street.

Friends of Mrs. Starr, nee Blanche Shea, of this city, report that she has adapted herself astonishingly well to the climate of Montana where her home now is. She writes that the weather is beautiful and she has not found the cold at all unpleasant.

First-Class Private A. H. Harp, a resident of 120 N. Isabel street, has returned from overseas service with the 143d Field Artillery. After being discharged at San Francisco about ten days ago, he spent a week in Taft, Calif., with his brother. He is now in this city.

Mrs. Margaret D. Thilbert, of 445 West California avenue, who has been a resident of Glendale for the past two years, is leaving Saturday for Santa Barbara, where she will spend some time with friends and probably go east from there in the spring.

A. L. Lawshe of this city will be a speaker at the Roosevelt Memorial service, held at the Central Christian Church in this city next Sunday morning. Mr. Lawshe was Third Assistant Postmaster General under Roosevelt and a personal friend and great admirer of the ex-President.

John J. Davis, of 800 South Maryland, who met with quite a serious accident two weeks ago when he descended from a moving street car, is now doing nicely and his many friends will be glad to know he is able to move around his room on crutches. He hopes soon to be mingling with the friends who have done so much to make his shut-in hours pleasant. Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis desire to express their gratitude to such friends.

Blake Franklin left Wednesday on a fishing trip somewhere up north. He was uncertain just where he would make his longest stop. He is expected home in a few days. Mrs. Blake Franklin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Price Holmes and Mrs. H. A. Holmes, motored to Riverside Thursday. The party had lunch at the Mission Inn and spent a very pleasant afternoon at that quaint hostelry inspecting the wonderful collection of curios there assembled and listening to the organ program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Haywood of Vancouver, who are spending the winter at 215 Milford street, this city, and who are entertaining as their house guest, their daughter, Mrs. Hunter, who is also of the northern city, have just returned from a week's motor trip and stay in San Diego, on which they were accompanied by Mrs. Hunter and by Mrs. Lawrence, a Vancouver friend, who is spending the winter in Los Angeles. They went in time to take in the aviation circus at Rockwell Field.

Chaplain C. R. Norton, on behalf of the N. P. Banks Post and Corps, invites everybody to the Roosevelt Memorial meeting at Grand Army Hall on Glendale avenue, Sunday, February 9th, at 3 p. m. It will be a joint meeting of the two organizations and will combine memorial services for deceased comrades and members of the Corps who have passed away during the year. The chief address will be made by Rev. E. H. Munger, pastor of the Tropico Methodist Church. Mrs. William Crawford will have charge of the musical program, which will include vocal numbers by Dr. Joseph Marple and Dr. P. O. Lucas.

"For heaven's sake stop that ad!" was the appeal of Mr. Merrick, a cheerful advertiser, who had appeared at the News Office a few days before with a liner in which he announced his desire for a furnished house. Knowing that they are scarce, he gave instructions for several insertions but after one appearance found exactly what he wanted at the corner of Maryland and Doran streets. He reports that he had six or eight replies and that they reached him at all hours of the day and night. So pleased is he with the results of his venture into the advertising columns that he has ordered his name placed upon the subscription list. He and Mrs. Merrick arrived in Southern California about three months ago and seem to find Glendale a pretty desirable residence town.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Three hundred spavined voting machines which are only hot on one cylinder may be bought cheap in Los Angeles. The county acquired them many years ago for $30,000. They looked good but a test proved they were rather more prone to corrupt practices than human election boards. So they never were given official use. The county, it is understood, will accept any fair offer from persons or nations looking for a political machine.

I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

COLORADO P.-T. A.

It was with great pleasure that the members of the Colorado P.-T. A. were able to again take up its work, Thursday, Feb. 6th, being its first meeting since the "flu" ban has been lifted. The president opened the meeting promptly; flag salute was led by Miss Mosier. Our membership chairman's report showed that she has not been idle. An invitation was read from the Columbus Ave. P.-T. A. to attend their "Fathers' Night," Feb. 17th, when Dr. Willisford will be the speaker. This will certainly be a treat and is a very kind and thoughtful act from our neighbor P.-T. A.

Our patriotic chairman is 100 per cent. patriotic, for she has not lessened her energies in the least.

Miss Ross carried off the honor of having most guests present.

At the close of the business, we were highly honored by having with us our Assemblyman, John Robert White, who could have told us still many interesting things, if our time had not been limited. He was given a standing vote of thanks and invited for an early return to enlighten us more.

Mrs. Kurtz, legislative chairman of Glendale Federated P.-T. A., gave a lengthy and most interesting report of convention, dwelling especially on the emigrant education, which we are to look after in the years to come.

At a late hour we adjourned, feeling though that the time had been well spent and we had gained in knowledge.—A Member.

CHURCH EFFICIENCY

The Central Christian Church of this city is a good example of methods of efficiency, which are being introduced into church management. In that organization Wednesday is "church day." For instance, on that day of the week once a month the women of the church meet at 10 a. m. for a mission study class, in the afternoon following a lunch served at the church, the regular missionary society meets, and at six o'clock every Wednesday in the month a supper is served at a charge of only 20c per plate, which every member of the church is urged to attend. This not only promotes social acquaintance, but brings them out for the various committee and business meetings which are held at 6:45 o'clock and which are followed by the weekly prayer service. It minimizes the demands upon the time of members and keeps up the efficiency of the working organization.

At the meeting of the Doran St. P.-T. A., which was held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Mrs. Danford, City Librarian, was the speaker and gave the mothers valuable suggestions relative to the use of the library by their children. She told of the books children like to read and of the ones they should read, and left with members lists of recommended juvenile books which were greatly appreciated. The attendance was almost one hundred per cent. of the membership and following the program light refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Put On The Left Shoe First

They all said it—Doughboy, Poilu, and Tommy—and clinging to that bit of trench superstition, they believed it brought good luck for the day—and longer life in the shelled racked stretch about them.

But in these fairer, happier days, when peace whirls the wheels of motordom again, we say,

"Put on the right shoe first."

And, of course, the right shoe, is the Goodrich Shoe, because it means good luck day and night, and longer life in your tires.

But there's no superstition about it; only the big, husky body, and the wide, thick BLACK SAFETY TREAD, Goodrich builds into tires that—address of the disabled man you know on the attached card.

By the simple favor of writing, on the card below, the name and address of a man disabled in the military or naval service of the United States Government, you may open the door of opportunity to him.

Uncle Sam, through the Federal Board of Vocational Education, wants to put him in a good job—no matter how or where in the Service he was disabled.

If his disability prevents him from returning to employment without training and he wishes to follow a course of vocational training provided by the Federal Board, the course will be furnished free of cost, and he will also be paid, as long as the training lasts, a monthly compensation of not less than $65, or a sum equal to the pay of his last month of active service; and allowances will be paid to his dependents.

Regardless of his present circumstances or condition, Uncle Sam wants to be of assistance to him. The Federal Board will get in direct touch with the disabled man, in whom you are interested, upon receipt of the attached card.

A supply of these cards is on file at the office of the Exemption Board in the City Hall on Broadway, and one will be given to any inquirer who knows of a disabled soldier who might wish to take advantage of this opportunity. Or, by telephoning the information to the clerk of the Board at the City Hall, Miss Lanterman, Gl. 1300, a card will there be filled out for the soldier and forwarded to the Washington Board.

beneficiaries. Yesterday, members brought donations of canned fruits and jellies for the institution which, when counted, were found to number 40 jars.

She told of the constant effort required to maintain the institution which has justified itself by the good it is doing. She stated that statistics showed that while in California there are thirteen institutions for the care of delinquent girls, this is the only free maternity hospital where the decent wife and mother who needs care she can not get at home, can find it. She said one of the first inquiries always made is: "Is it needed?" She then referred to the general agreement among physicians that it is better for the prospective mother to leave home entirely at that time that she may be away from the cares and responsibilities which react upon her nerves and tempt her to exertion before she is fit for it. For that reason the majority of women in the better class of homes go to hospitals instead of bearing their children at home. "If that need be true of the well-to-do, how much more is it true of the mother in the home of poverty who is always overtaxed and may spend the day before she goes to the hospital at the wash-tub," the speaker exclaimed. "The two weeks in which she is at the Maternity Cottage is a heaven of rest to her, a recuperation in mind as well as body, a preparation to better take up her task of mothering the infant committed to her care."

She also showed that the mortality of children is largely regulated by the family income. The last report of the Child Bureau at Washington, she said, conveyed a survey of the homes of working people, which showed that of families which receive only $550 a year, one child in six dies before it is a year old. In homes where the income is $1,250 a year, one child in sixteen dies before it is a year old. "So, you see," she said, "it is the conditions in the home which make or mar the child's life. This is official and they are anxious women should notice these figures."

Mrs. Bauerhyte also told of what she termed "the marriage" of the Maternity Cottage, how it became the beneficiary of a fund established several years which has been held by an organization of homeopathic physicians, but with the condition that it should henceforth bear the name "Maternity Cottage and Homeopathic Hospital." It will make no difference in the policy of the Cottage, she said, where the physician of any school can bring a patient, but it will give them the use of a $6,000 fund for building purposes.

She also spoke of the reduction of the income of the Cottage from the cutting off of appropriations heretofore made by the county through the zeal of County Council Hill in hunting up some old law forbidding the supervisors to make appropriations for charities, also the loss of receipts from salvage donations which have been going to the Red Cross during the war. There is a change for the better, however, and she appealed to the ladies to divide their salvage and let at least a part of it be used for the benefit of this local charity. The Cottage, she said, receives annually from the Friday Morning Club $125, from the Ebell $10, from the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles $120. She also spoke very gratefully of the help which the Chapter has been constantly giving the Hospital, especially its last donation of $25.

Several members of the Chapter agreed to respond to an appeal for Revolutionary relics to be placed in the museum which is being established in Washington, one lady volunteering the gift of an old-time parasol, another a handkerchief, and still another a pewter pitcher.

Marigolds and white hyacinths were used in decoration by the hostess, who served her guests with delicious home-made ginger bread, cookies and tea at the close of the afternoon's program.

SKIRTS, SHORT AND LONG

By MARGARET ROHE

(Written for The United Press)

Will someone kindly tell me
(If anybody knows)
Is New York leading Paris,
Or vice versa, as to clothes?

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—I'm just from Paree where they're wearing you see the shortest of dresses and frocks, so when I landed here I felt queer on the pier—the long skirts all gave me such shocks.

On the Rue de la Paix and the boulevards gay the skirts were as high as could be. When I came away it was not thought au fait unless yours were up to the knee.

Why, I sat up at night just to shorten mine right. Instead of wild oats I sewed hems; but I felt with a glow, "when I get home I know folks will think all my clothes Paris gems.

But alas and alack, now that I am come back I feel like a rube, and a jay. When I go on the street calves seem most indiscreet for the folks here aren't dressing that way.

When the dames first limped by in these skirts I did cry, "What a lot of brave girls have been hurt. Perhaps at the front, frying doughnuts—some stunt—they were shelled"—but 'twas only the skirt all so narrow and long wrapping round like a thong that hampered their poor tootsies so. They hobble and crawl and scarce move at all. They don't seem to have any "go."

Some skirts I see have a slit in the rear like an old time Directoire gone wrong, but whether they're slit a lot or a bit, they're all very narrow and long.

If these skirts I adopt my free strides must be stopped and a way straight and narrow I'll tread where I once used to prance short of skirt in dear France I'll hobble down Broadway instead. And I can't go to town till I do let mine down, for I hate to be different you know, yet to follow this style sure will take me some while, for to do it one needs must go slow.

There's another change queer between Paris and here that my first startled vision did greet. It's the vamps long and thin New York's put her foot in. They have simply bowled me off my feet.

The Parisienne cramps all her toes in short vamps and her shoes are as short as her clothes. They are suede or kid shiny and round toed and tiny with a contour quite like a snub nose. But with long pointed toes Miss Manhattan goes, she has worn these long vamps a long spell. If she turned up her toes they would sure graze her nose, if she didn't turn that up as well.

Then here too the shoes help to shut off the views. They are wearing them higher, to boot. While, in Paris they're mad over low shoes. This fad shows a length of silk hosiery cute. Twixt the ankle and knee there is beaucoup to see, and the girls there aren't stingy a bit, but stingy and near seem the girls over here with high shoes and long skirts close of fit.

Believe me, my dear, when the boys get back here they'll find lots that's differ'nt, I wiss. Most folks think strong drink they will crave most. I think that the wine isn't all they will miss.
